Commodore's Report . . .

by Richard Nowina

commodore@dalhousieyachtclub.com

The world is topsy-turvy with COVID-19. The news about Covid-19 and its variants, vaccines pending approvals, approved vaccine supply shortages and other medicines that can reportedly reduce virus severity, the news is all over the map. Good news offset by bad. Bad news offset by some positive news. How does one make sense of the situation?

Best option, stay home or mask up, social distance, and maintain vigilance. And most importantly, avoid complacency.

My takeaway from listening to government leaders is that COVID-19 seems to be a "not in my backyard" issue, until it is. And when it does arrive close by, it's at best a very unpleasant experience and at worst a premature death. Neither outcome is good and I'm taking precautions to avoid exposure.

Equally important from DYC's perspective - what's the season to be? What can the club do, should do, and should not do? My view is that the first half of 2021 will be worrisome. I'm hoping by late spring we will have enough coping remedies that the summer will supply opportunities for fun on the water in family groups, but likely no group cruises, some club racing but no regattas, and hopefully the summer weather will be as good as last summer.

I'm looking forward to quiet day sails, overnights at anchor, maybe an overnight sail to Kingston area. I think we'll still be social distancing and masking through the summer.

Where DYC is concerned, COVID-19 aside, I think the club is in its best position for at least the past three years. The Sunset Dining team has innovated to an exciting takeout and online entertainment offerings and pier reconstruction will be completed in the spring. This is attracting new members (already happening) and returning members. Parking on the westside will be open, and if it's not quite ready we'll have a ferry service to enable members to park on the east side and hop a ride to the westside. While there is still lots of work to do on the travel lift, it should be ready to launch boats. High water levels appear to be skipping 2021.

So what's the board doing? No moss growing anywhere! We continue to meet actively on Zoom calls. We have lease renewal discussions underway with city staff, we have teams working on documentation of policies and procedures, and Lloyd Burton is working on restoring the small Boston Whaler.

Commodore's Report cont'd . . .

Changes are coming in the DYC constitution and by-laws. Why? Well the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, which controls DYC governance will require some changes to the current by-laws to ensure DYC is compliant. This is long term work, and is being undertaken by Dan Sundy, John Dickhout and Jim White. From time to time, Jim will contribute a Breeze article to let members know what changes are anticipated. As well, we will hold information sessions as the work unfolds.

As well, the board is working to update the strategic plan. This will help us to prioritize projects and to get ahead of reactive maintenance.

Planned A dock replacement will likely be scheduled for 2022 or 23, however in 2021 we might be able to have a test slip installed to evaluate a design.

During 2021, as treasurer Paul Demare mentions, the club will need to be careful to control expenses which will not enhance revenues. Unfortunately, due to COVID-19, I don't believe we'll be in a position to run LTS programs. However, I do believe we'll be able to run club races

The board is busy. The club is doing well. All we need is for the pandemic to be under control and life will be "normal."

Cheers, Richard

Lew, Tracy and Family,
We Are Deeply Sorry for the Loss of Your Mom
Violet Holloway

Passed away quietly on January 10, 2021 at the age of 94.
Mother of Lew, Gerald, Wayde and Christopher. She was predeceased in 2012 by her loving husband of 63 years.

Violet was a wonderful and loving Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother.
She will be sadly missed.

Treasurer's Report . . .

by Paul Demare treasurer@dalhousieyachtclub.com

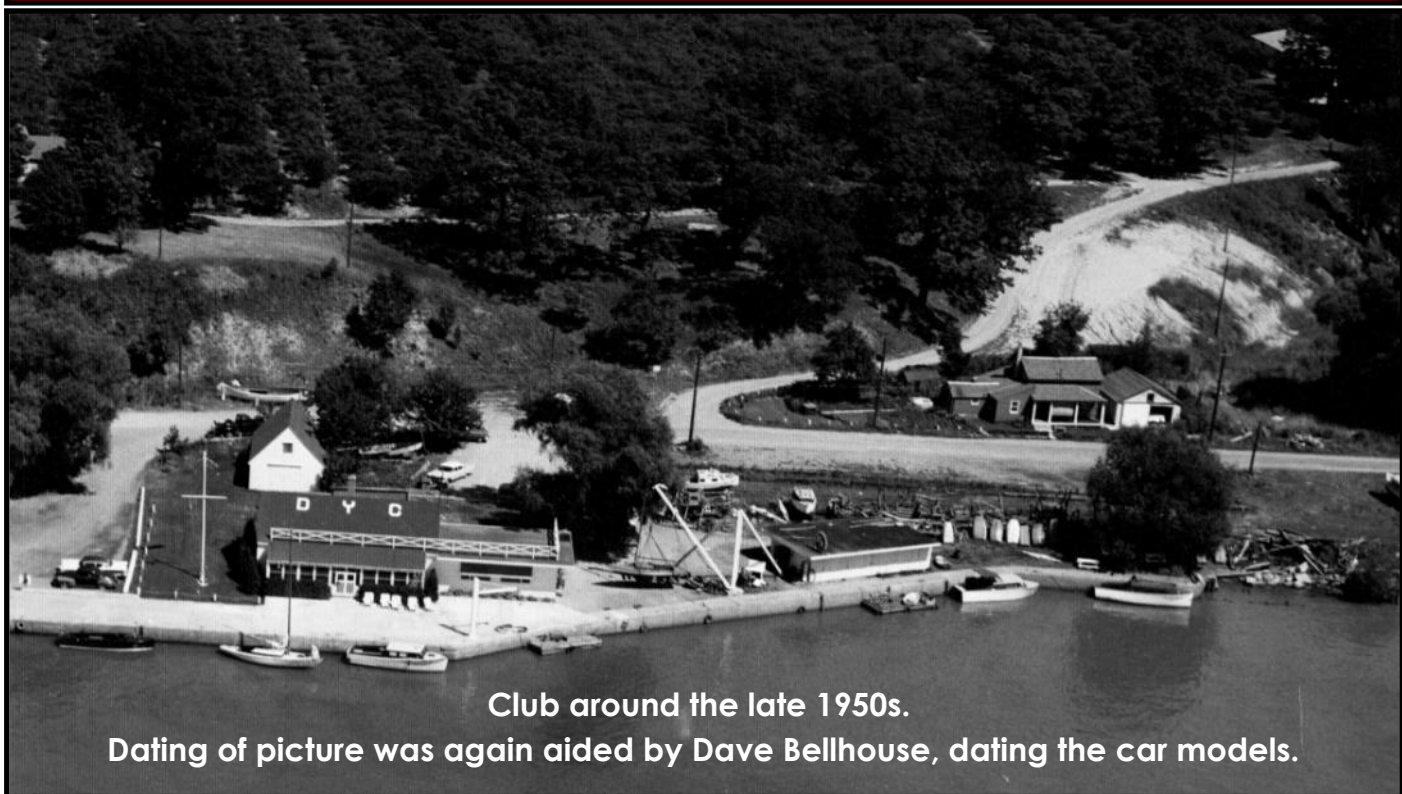

We start 2021 off well financially with a small but significant budget surplus, despite a drop in restaurant revenues due to Covid closures. Adding to our budget surplus, was a small grant from the Ontario Sailing Covid relief fund that we applied for and received.

We expect to maintain budget surplus during the year but it is dependent on a more normal return to clubhouse and restaurant activities in the summer. With the continued lockdowns and vaccine delays that we are seeing in Ontario, we hope these issues will be solved sooner than later, so that the financial impact will lessen.

We have funds available for some club projects depending on need priority and cost. The DYC board is reviewing costs for the projects and will determine what projects will move forward during 2021. These projects are focused on improving the club operations and providing a better member experience for existing members and also attracting new membership. Paul

Pulling Away from Port Dalhousie ~ FREEMAN CUP 1962

With every inch of canvas pulling these yachts make a pretty picture as they pull away from Port Dalhousie in the Lake Ontario yacht race for the Freeman Cup. First leg of the race is to Burlington. From there the yachts will head for Alcott, N.Y., and on to Toronto. With fair winds they're expected to cross the line tomorrow night. The yachts left Port Dalhousie late yesterday afternoon. —Staff photo by John McTaggart

Our Sincerest Condolences Go Out to Rossco and Nancy, as Rossco's Mom has sadly passed away.

Terry Sheila Marina Field

October 7, 1934 - December 30, 2020

Terry died peacefully in her sleep at home with her beloved cats and family at her side. She lived 86 full and varied years, moving homes (usually with a beloved cat in tow), countries and careers, reinventing herself along the way always with love, a good story, a sense of fun and adventure. She was a life long learner and a life long adherer to fitness. She was predeceased by her husband of 64 years, David Harry Field.

Terry did many things in life, but the role she most loved, was that of being a mother and Nana. She loved her children unconditionally and allowed them freedom to grow and learn from their mistakes while always having faith in them. She adored her grandchildren and was so happy and proud to watch them grow up into the fine adults she believed that they became.

She will be dearly missed by her children Tracey (Vicken), Paul Ross (Nancy), and her grandchildren Rebecca (Martin), Spencer (Kathleen), Aram (Alex), Simon and Troy, as well as her brother Allen Snelson (Margret) in England. The family are having a private celebration of her life.

From behind the desk and behind the mask....

Although the clubhouse is CLOSED, and I cannot connect with you in person, I have not gone into total hibernation! Lots of great work going on behind the closed/locked doors.

(Shhhh  heavy concentration going on here!)

As always, payments can still be made at deposits@dalhousieyachtclub.com and emails received at manager@dalhousieyachtclub.com. If you really, really NEED to speak with me, you can reach me Tuesdays to Thursdays 9 - 4 p.m.

Believe it or not, Dock applications and deposits will be due this month which means . . . we are that much closer to boats in the water!! (Insert happy dance!!) Watch for an email from our Dock chair on timelines and start thinking about where you would like to sail this summer.

In the meantime, continue to take good care and stay safe. We have so much to celebrate at DYC!

Essential Maintenance Needing Attention For 2021 DYC Boating Season

Can you help?

Calling all Dry sailors, fender boards on the seawall at the Dry Sail Hoist need to be installed.

Under covid guidelines essential maintenance criteria up to 5 workers per task can do this work.

DYC wants to attract and encourage Dry Sailors to resume racing with the new paving, fencing and relocated DS hoist.

Please reach out to Leigh to see how you can get involved with this project.

Safety Officer's Report . . .

by Larry Richardson

safety.officer@dalhousieyachtclub.com

Happier New Year everyone!

Well, surprisingly this COVID thing not over. I can't wait for a return to normal. Each time I say that my companions say, "What is normal"? Good question?

Well I just found out from watching a highly intellectual and informative documentary movie on Netflix (Seth MacFarlane's Ted) that, "Everyone is normal but you!" So being normal, I guess, like safety, is personal.

This is a stressful time. I have looked back at my life searching for a time when the day to day stresses were comparable to today. Mutually Assured Destruction (MAD) since the 1950's. The Cuban Missile Crisis. The Leafs winning the Cup. The Vietnam War. Glasnost. The Gulf War(s). Some Prime Ministers and Presidents. As the song goes, "Nothing compares to poo!" Chert pobieri, Russians call it. Nothing compares, for me. I look forward to sharing that story with you while sipping a Keith's on the patio.

Seriously, there has never been a more challenging time for us, any of us born since WWII. Our parents, by any definition, lived in a more challenging time. And I am sure that I do not understand today their mindset; the mindset that got them through it. Indeed, some are still paying for it.

I want to go off on some safety lecture at this point, but I can't. There is plenty of time for that. Everything is overshadowed by that which threatens our lives and that of our loved ones. And our DYC gang. Our friends.

Take off your hard hats and think of a time, hopefully in the very near future where we will gather with our family and friends unhindered by laws and advisories, look to the setting sun from DYC, sail back from the sunset to our harbour, hug each other, shake hands, sip from the same cup, share a packet of fries, share gloves (and hardhats), as we did when things were normal.

It's up to you, and me. Now make it happen.

Larry

1890 Looking West of the Harbour to Port Dalhousie + 1998 DYC East Side

Yesterday and Today

By DENNIS GANNON

The photo, above left, was taken about 1890, looking west across the harbour at Port Dalhousie. In the foreground is the station of the Grand Trunk Railway's Welland Division, a successor to the Welland Railway, founded in the late 1850s by William Hamilton Merritt and others. It ran north-south between Port Dalhousie and Port Colborne, connecting in Merrittton with the Grand Trunk Railway, which ran east-west from Niagara Falls to Hamilton.

The Welland Railway's primary purpose was to carry grain and other cargoes between Port Dalhousie and Port Colborne. The grain elevator was just out of view on the left.

Next to the train station is the dock for the St. Catharines, Grimsby and Toronto Navigation Co. Founded in 1884, it ran steamers daily between Port Dalhousie and Toronto. It looks like the side-wheel steamer Empress of India is about to chug back across the lake to Toronto. Passengers just arrived from Toronto stand around talking before boarding the train that would take them to St. Catharines and points south. In the distance is the business section of the village of Port Dalhousie, west of the harbour.

Today's photo shows that everything on the east side of the harbour is gone. Most of the activities shifted to the west side of the harbour in the early 1900s. In the distance, Port's business district can still be seen.

Dennis Gannon is past president of the St. Catharines Historical Society.
